DENTAL STUDENT OF MONONGAHELA KILLED IN FALL FROM TRAIN

STANDING ON THE PLATFORM FATAL

Paul Adams, a Senior In Dental School of University of Pittsburgh, Meets Death As He Nears His Home In Monongahela

TUMBLES FROM PLATFORM

Accident Occurred Near Courtney, Two Miles North of Monongahela, Where the Youth Lived. Shortly Before 7 O'clock Last Evening

A sad accident occurred near Courtney, two miles north of Monongahela, shortly after 7 o'clock last night, when Paul Adams, aged 23 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams of Monongahela, fell from a southbound Pennsylvania passenger train, sustaining injuries from which he died shortly before reaching the Memorial hospital.

The decedent was a student in the dental school of the University of Pittsburgh, and in company with a number of his fellow students, was on his way home from school. They had been standing on the rear platform of the last car. Adams' companions had returned to the interior of the coach, leaving him on the platform. When the train reached Monongahela, Adams was missed. The train was held at Monongahela while passengers and crew went back over the route to look for the missing youth. When they reached Courtney, they learned of the mishap.

Several persons living at Courtney saw Adams fall from the car and hastened to his assistance. When picked up he was unconscious, and was at once hurried to the hospital, but died ere reaching the institution. An examination showed that his skull had been fractured, and it is believed that he suffered internal injuries.

Paul Adams was a popular young man of Monongahela, a graduate of the high school of that city, class of 1920, and had since been a student of dentistry in the Pittsburgh institution above named. He was a member of the class of 1925. There survive his death, his parents, and two brothers, Timothy and John Adams, Jr.

The deceased was a classmate of Howard W. Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bradley of 731 Fallowfield avenue, the local boy and the Adams youth being very good friends.

LOCAL OPTION IS DEMANDED AFTER DRYS VICTORIOUS

[illegible], Ontario, October 25.—Northern Ontario, where a "wet" vote predominated, only to be mopped up by the "dry" votes of the south as the province retained prohibition by a majority of 40,000 in Thursday's election, is demanding local option.

There is much talk of secession from the province if government sale of liquor, the alternative to prohibition, is not permitted in the north.

The latest figures on the province-wide vote were:

Prohibition, 541,003.

Government control, 501,124.

All the larger cities voted "wet" and officials admit much difficulty in enforcing prohibition is anticipated.

75 Cases Of Scarlet Fever In Uniontown

Seventy-five cases of scarlet fever are reported in the city of Uniontown, seriously affecting the attendance at the public and parochial schools of that city. The presence of the dread malady gives the health department and the officials of Uniontown no little concern.

Health Officer William M. Darby said today in contradistinction to report of the existence of scarlet fever in the mountain city, that Charleroi at the present time has not one case of contagious disease, a condition in which he points with a pardonable degree of pride due to the eternal vigilance of those who are safeguarding the health of the citizenry of the borough.

MORE TIME IN WHICH TO VOTE

It has been suggested to us by a prominent resident of the borough that if arrangements can be made by mercantile employers and the heads of manufacturing interests to give their employes a little more time in which to vote at elections, that there would probably not be the disparity of ballots as has been the rule in elections of late years.

The resident in reference was of the opinion that if employers could form some plan whereby their help might rotate, that possibly by this method they would escape the congestion at the polls which often exists at the noon hour and or 6 in the evening. As a matter of fact very oft when a person has to work until 6 in the evening, he or she, by the time they get their supper are rushed to get to the polls, which close at 7 o'clock.

The gentleman is very anxious to see a full complement of ballots cast in the election of November 4, and trusts that means and measures will be taken in the interests of those employing help who cast their votes in seeing to it that each person has plenty of time to go to the polls and cast their ballot.

GARBAGE DISPOSAL WITHOUT FORMALITY OF LIQUIDATION

Health Officer William M. Darby was the prosecutor before Burgess J. Bryant Tussing last night in which John Ritha, 940 McKean avenue, was the defendant, in which Ritha was accused of garbage disposal at the [illegible] formality of paying for its removal. Ritha thought it was good business to save the costs which accrue from time to time through garbage collection and disposal in proper channels. Ritha was fined $1 and costs by the burgess, and admonished by the functionary that he must not interfere with the regular garbage collector in the discharge of his duties by dumping the garbage at his home of his own accord.

We believe this case is in the line of an innovation in the matter of citizens' garbage disposal.

Ouster Is Asked Of School Directorate--- Misconduct Is Alleged

The school directors of another township are asked to leave office in a petition filed in Fayette county in court by Attorney J. W. Dawson, which included as well the road supervisors and auditors of the township. Three petitions were signed by qualified voters of the township which were sworn to.

The petition alleges misconduct and neglect of duty of the school directors, road supervisors and township auditors. The rule was granted by Judge E. H. Reppert and made returnable November 10. The township officers who assumed duty in December, 1923, were J. M. Rhodes, L. L. Moser and Harry Brownfield.

The school directors are I. C. Sutton, president, S. J. Warman, secretary, J. W. White, treasurer, and C. D. Swaney, Clifford H. Hostetler and D. H. Hughes. It is alleged in the petition that they borrowed money illegally paid warrants and orders illegally, borrowed $10,000 on a promissory note at the Second National Bank, Uniontown, and that contracts were made illegally for construction work at Sulphur Springs School No. 2, and Glendale School and money paid out for work that was never done. Also that $10,873.72 the petition stated, was paid out for work to Mike Fee for the construction of a concrete driveway and walk about the York Run School, the arrangement with Fee was made in an illegal manner and the warrants were improperly paid.

The road supervisors, it is charged in the petition, failed to give proper notice of resignation from the board and that vacancies were filled in an improper manner. The petition charges that the board did not meet regularly, that no minutes were kept and that persons were refused the right to examine the records; that they borrowed money, gave promissory notes, all without authority of law for so doing. The petition alleges that they paid exorbitant salaries to the secretary and treasurer and their conduct in office in general was such as to have the petitioners ask for their removal.

INQUEST INTO JUROVIK DEATH

The coroner's inquest into the death of John Jurovik, aged 18 years of Hazelkirk, who died in the Memorial hospital Tuesday October 14, was conducted by Coroner William Greenlee yesterday afternoon.

Jurovick was injured when he fell from a Ford chassis driven by Ignatz Bellback of Carroll township. Jurovick was thrown to the ground and never regained consciousness, death resulting in the Memorial hospital from uremic poisoning induced by the injury. The testimony of a number of witnesses was heard following which the jury found that Jurovick came to his death by uremic poisoning as the result of a fall from the machine when it left the road and landed in a ditch.

TWO MEN KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Two fatalities occurred in the community of Canonsburg shortly before 9 o'clock yesterday morning, when George Sherrow, colored, and aged 63 years, was crushed beneath a load of lumber which slipped from his wagon, and the other at the crossing of the Westland branch of the Pennsylvania railorad in Houston at about the same time, when Festy Lacaba, an Italian of Houston, was knocked from a handcar when it hit a truck that was crossing the tracks.

Sherdock was an old resident of Canonsburg, and was wellknown. He was driving a load of lumber at the time of the accident. The full weight of the load fell upon him as he was commencing the work incident to unloading it, and his death was instantaneous.

Lacaba, who did not die until he reached the hospital, was one of five on the hand-car, which ran into the truck. He was hurled from the car with great force. None of the others was seriously hurt.

SETS FIRE TO ROOM THEN DISAPPEARS

After an alleged unsuccessful attempt to end his life, William King, age 27 years, son of August King, of 646 McMahon avenue, Monessen, mysteriously disappeared from his home Thursday evening about 8:30 and no trace of him has as yet been found. King, who has been in ill health for a number of years, is described as being 5 feet 10 inches in height, light brown hair, fair complexion and weighs about 140 pounds.

Early Thursday evening young King and his father were talking in the dining room of their home when the young man left the room, telling his father he was going to retire. Shortly after he entered his room, occupants of the house smelled smoke, and upon investigation, found the young man's room on fire. The father tried to force an entrance, but the door was securely locked. An alarm was sent into the Monessen Fire department, and the firemen responded immediately. The flames had gained considerable headway when the firemen finally broke in the door, and several of them risked their lives in an effort to locate the boy. No trace of him could be found.

It is thought he deliberately set fire to the room with the hope that it would be completely wiped out before it was discovered and to make his parents believe he perished in the flames.

Any information as to the young man's whereabouts will be gratefully received at the King home, 646 McMahon avenue, Monessen.

TO MAKE WAR A CRIME.

The Associated Press has reported from Geneva that, with Japan and the British dominions made content, the delegates to the League of Nations assembly congratulated themselves upon "the successful completion of the stupendous task of drafting a protocol of arbitration and security, which, when ratified, will be followed next June by a general world conference for the reduction of armaments." The protocol is designed to make nations so secure [illegible] in reducing their armaments. The unreserved approval of it by France, the nation with perhaps the greatest need of such security indicates that the proposition is regarded as a substantial and practical one. It is, in effect, an agreement to make all war a crime like the world against the perpetrator.

The old covenant was designed with a view to delay war as a means of preventing it, but if war came in spite of all it was not declared illegal. Now it is proposed to make war illegal in any case. A nation which refuses to submit its case to the International Court, the Council of the League, or some other body for the arbitration of disputes, is to be regarded as a criminal nation, and if it will not arbitrate and insists on war the League will declare it an aggressor. At first thought it is natural to suppose that much will depend on whether the aggressor is one of the most powerful nations but it is stated that the penalties are so serious that no nation whatsoever could afford to face them. Whatever may be the result of this historic decision of fifty-odd nations in convention it must be said that the proposal is as courageous and nobly inspired as it is ambitious.

Bishop Hurst of the African Methodist Episcopal Church has appealed to all negroes to vote for Senator La-Follette on the ground that they have nothing to hope from either of the old parties. It would be highly interesting to know just what they have to hope for from LaFollette. Several other prominent negroes have hopefully declared for John W Davis, but presumably the bulk of the race will vote the Republican ticket, from long habit, if from no other known reason

GETTING CARD READY FOR BIG BOUT

Matchmaker Johnny McGarvey is hustling about to fill out a prelim card to support the Cuddy DeMarco-Pep O'Brien feature which will serve as the opening of Motor Square Garden one week from Monday night It is planned to have an eight-round semi-final between two well-known lightweights and two six rounders which will complete the card.

The signing of DeMarco to meet the lad who beat him to the decision in McKeesport recently is the first move in the plan which will go a long way toward determining the leading local lightweight and unless the Charleroi flash takes to his work more seriously than he has recently he may find himself put out of the running It was just to dissipate this belief that Cuddy took the match with O'Brien, who is a slugger and nothing else. The Scranton lad is one of the hardest hitters in his class and unless DeMarco is right, fight fans are likely to get the thrill of seeing him on the floor

Hollocher brought a fair price, but he was purchased from Portland during the war when player values were low Keen was a Maryland collegian who was developed personally by Killefer. Tony Kaufmann came from a small league in Canada Aldrich was purchased from Indianapolis, but was developed at Los Angeles.

Friberg, Hartnett, Miller, Cotter and [illegible] none costing over $10,000. Excluding Alexander I don't think the entire regular Cub team cost as much as the combined prices of Jimmy O'Connell Wayland Dean and Jack Bentley.

All of which speaks well for the business acumen and baseball sagacity of Bill Veeck former Chicago baseball writer, who is president of the Cubs It also is a splendid tribute to Bill Killefer.

Everything comes to him who waits unless he does his waiting sitting.

BRIBERY TESTIMONY TO COME AT PROPER TIME, SAYS LANDIS

Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball commissioner, said yesterday that the testimony of Cozy Dolan and Jimmy O'Donnell, members of the New York Giants involved in the bribery scandal preliminary to the world series, would be revealed whenever, in his judgment, it would serve a useful purpose in clearing up the situation.

Commissioner Landis declined to say whether Dolan and O'Connell had been placed in the same class with the members of the Chicago Whitesox who were put on the ineligible list for conspiracy to throw the world's series of 1919 to Cincinnati.

Answering the question whether Dolan and O'Connell had been banished forever from organized baseball, the commissioner said they had been placed on the ineligible list. He refused to amplify this statement. His original statement, issued at the time of his action against the two players covered the situation, he said.

LUTHERANS MEET AND ARE DRILLED IN THREE C'S

Last evening in the Sunday school room of Christ Lutheran church, forty-five members of the C. C. C. class were initiated into the meaning of the three C's. The degree work was conferred by a 10-man team of St. Luke's Lutheran church of Pittsburgh.

The initiation, being of a very impressive naturg, was much appreciated by all present. As the class of Charleroi will have a degree team in the future, it is requested that every member who was absent last evening be present at the first meeting when a degree is put on, in order that they may know the meaning of the three C's, and to be able to take part in all of the activities during the coming year, for there promises to be something doing at all times.

The brother members of Pittsburgh gave the local members an idea last night of some of the things that can be done by a class of this kind when they presented a demonstration of one of their numbers to be used in a minstrel to be given by them in Pittsburgh. The name of the song was, "How Do You Do, Charleroi," which proved quite a hit with the local members.

At the completion of the degree work, there was speaking by several members of both classes, and from general indications it was gathered that there is going to be something doing along the line of social activities and entertainment this coming year.

The boys from Pittsburgh gave the locals the idea that they must "step on the gas" to beat them out, but one thing in the locals' favor is the leader Pittsburgh lost, in the person of Charlie Zoller, a real fellow, and with him as leader, they are bound to be heard from.

Brothers, be there on Sunday morning, and show Mr. Zoller that we are back of him. Also don't forget to come to the business meetings for we are all interested in what is being done and what will be done, and this is the place to find these things out.

Luncheon served by the committee concluded the evening.

In Society's Realm

At the home of Mrs. Sarah Yant of Third street Thursday evening, Mrs. Sarah Haines was accorded a birthday party in honor of her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. The members of the Ladies' Circle of Monongahela were among those present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The honored guest received a number of appropriate gifts.

There were twenty members and friends of St. Mary's Epipscopal church who journeyed to Monongahela last night and attended the masquerade dance held in Markell hall, Main street under the auspices of the Young People's League of St. Paul's church. Monessen and Brownsville were also well represented and an assembly of over 200 were present. A very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and cards.

Miss Elizabeth Wise, teacher of the Cheerful class of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian Sunday school, entertained the members at her home in Shady avenue last evening. The affair was in the form of a Halloween party and decorations were carried out in accordance with the season. The color scheme of the luncheon was carried out in black and yellow. A delightful evening of games was enjoyed by all, concluded by serving of dainty refreshments by the hostesses. During a short business meeting officers for the forthcoming year were elected.

The Stanley Powers home in Crest avenue was prettily decorated in keeping with the Halloween season Thursday evening, when Mrs. Powers entertained with a birthday surprise party in honor of her daughter, Anna Frances, age 6 years. Sixteen small guests were present and a delightful time was spent in playing various games, led by Miss Mildred Sauters of Meadow avenue. At 8:30 o'clock a dainty luncheon was served the guests in the dining room, after which they adjourned to their homes wishing the honored guest many happy returns of the day. Miss Anna Frances received many appropriate gifts.

The Carl Wertz's summer home on the Monongahella-Bentleyville pike, was the scene of a very joyous occasion last night, when the office force of the West Penn Power company, their friends and wives, spent a highly enjoyable evening with a weiner roast. The twenty some in attendance motored to the Wertz home about 6 o'clock, where a feast consisting of every edible that goes with a roast, awaited them. The meal was served in the home, which was befittingly decorated for the season and occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stech and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wertz were in charge of the affair. Following the roast, the balance of the evening was spent in dancing and card playing.

Boone said that Wallace became unconscious again this morning after having been unconscious most of yesterday.

"MESSALINA" IS TO SHOW AT THE MAJESTIC

The local premiere of "Messalina," the most costly film ever made in Europe, will take place at the Majestic Theater next Monday and Tuesday.

"Messalina," the most stupendous production ever made by Enrico Guazzoni, director of "Quo Vadis," "Julius Caesar" and "Cleopatra," was regarded with great interest by the King and Queen of Italy, who were constant visitors during the building of the sets and the filming of the scenes, and extended to Signor Guazzoni their complete cooperation.

Messalini was a woman famous for her beauty and easy virtue. Her friend and companion was an Egyptian Princess, until they both fell in love with a young slave, famous as a chariot driver. The jealousy between the two, the plot to outwit each other, form a strong love theme.

Is Your

SPINE

In Line?

Perfect alignment of the spine means perfect health. ImPerfect alignment means that one of more of the vertebrae of the spine are out of the natural position. This produces pressure on the delicate nerves at the point where they leave the spine. Because of this the brain cannot get the full amount of life force over them.

Whatever part of the body, whether it is the heart, stomach, lungs, kidneys, etc., that is supplied by a pinched nerve is bound to be weak, because every cell in the body receives its life force over the nervous system, and if the nerve is pinched its life force is decreased.

Chiropractic Adjustments will put your spine in line and health follows.

LESSON NO. 9

LIGHTING THE HALLS AND STAIRS

The main hall, where we welcome our guests, may be large or it may be small, but probably nothing will light it as well as an attractive ceiling fixture equipped with a total of from 50 to 100 watts of lamp bulbs.

If the hall is large enough, we may add a pair of bracket fixtures on the wall at either side of a pretty mirror, or we may use a small table lamp, or candlesticks on a console table. When we do this, the lights should be well shaded, of course, and not too bright. Economy suggests the use of 15 or 25-watt bulbs.

Upstairs halls or long private halls are usually best lighted with small ceiling fixtures equipped with 25 or 50-watt bulbs. In many homes, however, bracket fixtures may be used on the walls to give satisfactory lighting. When the house is wired, the lights in the halls should be put in so that they may be lighted from either upstairs or downstairs.

The lighting fixtures in the halls ought to be placed so that they will light the stairway as well as the hall. In large homes where the stairs turn or where there is a landing half way up, it may be advisable to install a small fixture at the turn to be sure the stairs are well lighted.

LIGHTING THE OUTSIDE OF THE HOUSE

Many homes that are being built now have a duplex convenience outlet installed on the porch so that portable lamps may be used to make an outdoor living room in pleasant weather.

In every home some lighting is needed at the main entrance and other doorways for convenience and safety at night. Lanterns of weatherproof metal are commonly used either as bracket or ceiling fixtures.

The driveway to the garage will need some light, perhaps from a fixture attached to the outside of the house. The lighting inside the garage should be installed so that it may be lighted from either the house or the garage. In more elaborate homes the gateway and drive may be equipped with ornamental

For outdoor fixtures a 50-watt bulb will usually be large enough. However, if a large space is to be lighted, as much as 100 watts may be needed.

PROPER WIRING

Hidden in the walls of a home are the wires that permit us to enjoy the comforts of electric service. They are out of sight and we never think about them, but they are very important for they may limit our ability to use electricity for lighting and for appliances conveniently.

Every year we add something to the electric equipment in the home. Perhaps this year it is a new table lamp, last year it may have been a wash machine or a toaster, next year it may be a fan or a curling iron. Five years ago when the house was wired, we did not plan for these new things, and now we remove a lamp bulb to connect one of them, thus depriving ourselves of needed light and spoiling the appearance of the room by the unsightly cord which dangles from the socket.

The wiring in most homes can be made to give greater service today by the addition of convenience outlets (usually the duplex type, which permits two things to be connected to one outlet). In general, we need one of these for each fifty square feet of floor in the room. These may be placed in the wall near the floor or at a height of three or four feet above the floor to save bending over when we connect an appliance. Another feature of the properly wired home is a wall switch to control each of the principal lighting fixtures.

As a protection against accident, the main switch, which controls all the lights in the house and the fuses should be in a modern metal box so designed that there can be no possibility of an electric shock.

Every householder is interested in these devices for comfort and convenience in the use of electric service, but he should not attempt to make changes in the wiring of the house without the services of a competent electrician who understands the precautions which must be taken for safety. There are specific rules in every city designed for the protection of the public and all changes in wiring must be

AMERICAN CHARITY SAVES LIVES IN RUSSIAN ARMENIA

Zurich, Switzerland October 12, 1924.

Editor of the Mail:

My visit to Russian Armenia has fully confirmed my previous impression of the magnitude and importance of American relief work in that corner of the world. Our charity there has not only saved thousands of lives; it is actually building a new type of national life.

The traveller need but compare an old Armenian village with a Near East Relief orphanage. In the former, life is found in its primitive form, there is no home life, no idea of order, cleanliness, sanitation, conveniences, the whole life for centuries has been stunted by constant menace of war and massacre; there has been no incentive to progress, the people are not touched by modern ideas. In the American orphanages is security, order, cleanliness, new and better methods of keeping house and tilling soil; above all the spirit of cooperation, friendliness, service, is making a profound impression upon thousands of children.

Children trained in these agricultural and industrial orphanage schools, when absorbed in the national life, will be builders of a new Armenia. They have seen not only the outer comforts of life; they have been touched by a new spirit; life has a new meaning for them.

The spirit of service is the driving power among the American workers. They are a fine lot of men and women, whole-souled, devoted, jolly and happy in their work. This American attitude of service is a puzzle to all the peoples of that part of the world, Turks, Russians, Tartars and the rest. They see the hard work Americans are doing, they see also our good cheer and happiness. They know that behind our little band of workers stand millions of Americans giving freely of their money. Why? What do we want? What are we after?

For the first time in the history of these nations, they see representatives of another nation working, spending, facing difficulties with a smile—not to exploit a weaker nation but to help it get stronger and better. For no ulterior motive, but in a spirit of unselfish service, America throughout the Near East, is giving an object lesson in the spirit of the Golden Rule, in religious broadmindedness and cooperation It seems incomprehensible to people used to religious bigotry, narrowness, hatreds, national selfishness and enmity. But it is bound to be the most potent factor in their future development.—John L. Neulsen.

To Open Sealed Jars

When glass jar tops stick the easiest way to open them is to invert the can in hot water and leave it for about five minutes. Of course a cold glass jar should not be plunged into boiling water. Pour hot water in a small container to a depth of two inches or more, then invert the can in it. After a few minutes the top will come off easily. Corks may be removed in the same way.—The Pathfinder.

Coffee Flowers Beautiful

The Arabian coffee shrub is an evergreen plant, which under natural conditions grows to a height of from 18 to 20 feet, with oblong-ovate, smooth and shining leaves, measuring 6 inches in length by 2½ wide. Its flowers, which are produced in clusters, are pure white in color, with a rich fragrant odor, and the plant in blossom has a lovely and attractive appearance.

Classes in the State

In every state the people are divided into three kinds, the very rich, the very poor and those who are between them. Since, then, it is universally acknowledged the mean is the best, it is evident, that even in respect to fortune a middle state is to be preferred; for that state is most likely to submit to reason.—Aristotle.

Coffee's Earliest Home

The home land of the coffee plant is said to be Abyssinia, in eastern Africa, bordering on the southern part of the [illegible] tion of the coffee plant spread to Arabia, on the other side of the Red sea, and it is from Arabia that the world obtained the plant and learned the use of its product.
